Mar. 6.—The house passed the following bills:

House bill No. 96, to encourage the construction of storage reservoirs, to create power to generate electricity, exempting such enterprises from taxation for a period of nine years.

Council bill No. 13, relating to the judicial districts.

Bill No. 67, known as the barbers' Sunday closing bill.

The ranger bill, which doubles the force, was resurrected again on a vote of reconsideration and passed.

The bill exempting church corporations from publishing their articles of incorporation.

House bill No. 92, appropriating $100,000 for improvements in the asylum.

House bill No. 89, providing for the display of the American flag on schoolhouses and to promote patriotic exercises.

House bill No. 51, relating to school trustees.

House bill No. 41, providing for two justices of the peace in towns of over 300 voters.

House bill No. 70, relating to appeals.

Mar. 9.—Very little business was transacted in either house.

Mar. 10.—Gov. Brodie signed the eight-hour bill.

The council passed the following bills:

House bill No. 89, authorizing the display of American flags on all school houses in the territory.

The bill prohibiting the stealing of rides on railroad trains.

The house bill providing for the appointment of deputies.

The house passed the following bills:

A bill making all section lines public highways.

The bill to revise the statutes making discovery shafts eight feet instead of ten.

House bill No. 101, establishing a legal standard of weights and measures.

House bill No. 121, providing for the parole of convicts.

House bill No. 57 relating to public printing.

House bill No. 104, relating to the filing of mortgages and deeds of trust.

Mar. 11.—The house passed the following bills:

Bill No. 115, relating to coroner's inquests.

House bill No. 114, regulating practice in justice courts.

House bill No. 93, amending the revised statutes and creating a regimental band.

House bill No. 94, to encourage the erection of beet sugar factories, exempting the same from taxation for a period of six years.

House bill No. 146, authorizing the county of Yuma to issue bonds to the sum of $50,000 for the erection of a court house and jail.

The council passed the following bills:

House bill No. 52, appropriating $170 to purchase 500 copies of Gov. Brodie's report the secretary of the interior.

House bill No. 86, which grants the National Guard of Arizona the privilege of attending the world's fair provided they pay their own expenses.

Council bill No. 53, which fixes the salary of the territorial treasurer at $2,500 annually.

Council bill No. 52, giving the governor power to appoint a board of managers for the world's fair and makes women honorary members.

Mar. 12.—The Cowan bill, which turns the fees for filing articles of incorporation into the territorial treasury was passed by the house.

A message was received from the governor to the effect that he had signed house bills Nos. 51, 52, 63, 64, 77, 78, 86.

The house passed the following bills:

House bill No. 111, which provides for the printing of the territorial school superintendent's report.

Council bill No. 41, which provides for the membership of the territorial board of equalization.

The sheep bill, by a vote of 17 to 7.

This bill seems to be enmical to sheepmen forcing them to pay taxes in two or three counties or wherever they may chance to drive their flocks. A considerable number of sheep are driven from the northern counties to Maricopa to take advantage of an early shearing season and would no doubt add some to the revenues of that county.

The bill appropriating $10,000 for the erection of a monument in Prescott to the memory of Buckey O'Neill.

The council passed the following bills:

Council bill No. 49, validating acknowledge of foreign notaries.

House bill No. 34, regulating the practice of dentistry.

House bill No. 28, allowing city councils discretion in publishing proceedings.

Substitute to house bill No. 12 relating to county treasurers.

House bill No. 26, fixing the fees of jurors.

Weil Again.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by F. J. Watron.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

Theodford's Black-Draught has saved doctors' bills for more than sixty years. For the common family ailments, such as constipation, indigestion, hard colics, bowel complaints, chills and fever, biliousness, headaches and other like complaints no other medicine is necessary. It invigorates and regulates the liver, assists digestion, stimulates action of the kidneys, purifies the blood, and purges the bowels of foul accumulations. It cures liver complaint, indigestion, sour stomach, dizziness, chills, rheumatic pains, sideache, backache, kidney troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, biliousness, piles, hard colics and headache. Every druggist has Theodford's Black-Draught in 25 cent packages and in mammoth size for $1.00. Never accept a substitute. Insist on having the original made by the Chattanooga Medicine Company.

I believe Theodford's Black-Draught is the best medicine on earth. It is good for any and everything. I have a family of twelve children, and for four years I have kept them on foot and healthy with no doctor but Black-Draught. A. J. GREEN, Newburg, La.
